Guided tours of Murals of La Jolla

Walking tours leave from the Athenaeum Music & Arts Library at 5:30 p.m.

Tours are free and registration is required. Visit lathenaeum.org/murals for current registration information.

The Athenaeum Music & Arts Library, administrator of Murals of La Jolla, is pleased to host walking tours of the murals. Join fellow art enthusiasts and learn more about the artists and their artworks during a guided walking tour led by Murals of La Jolla Executive Director Lynda Forsha.

Sixteen murals are currently on view, and each tour features more than half of these. It is a gentle walk around the village, but we ask participants to please wear comfortable shoes. Participants in the tour are responsible for their own safety.

Murals of La Jolla, founded by the La Jolla Community Foundation, is a project of the Athenaeum. The program demonstrates that commissioning artists to create works for public spaces brings energy and vitality to a community. Over the past fourteen years, large-scale artworks have appeared in a variety of locations throughout the village of La Jolla, some prominently displayed while others are tucked away in more discreet locations. To date, works by Amy Adler, Terry Allen, Eleanor Antin, John Baldessari, Math Bass, Mel Bochner, Mark Bradford, Kelsey Brookes, Sandra Cinto, Rosson Crow, Einar and Jamex de la Torre, Roman De Salvo, June Edmonds, Kota Ezawa, Gajin Fujita, Anya Gallaccio, Chitra Ganesh, Robert Ginder, Raul Guerrero, Ann Hamilton, Steven Hull, Robert Irwin / Philipp Scholz Rittermann, Isaac Julien, Nina Katchadourian, Alex Katz, Byron Kim / Victoria Fu, Jean Lowe, Kim MacConnel, Heather Gwen Martin, Ryan McGinness, Roy McMakin, Michael Mercil, Beatriz Milhazes, Richard Allen Morris, Catherine Opie, Julian Opie, Marcos Ramirez ERRE, Gabriella Sanchez, Lorenzo Hurtado Segovia, Rex Southwick, Fred Tomaselli, Monique van Genderen, William Wegman, and Gail Werner have been installed throughout La Jolla.
